Dear Sir,

We have high hopes of selling all of the books and maybe more if time permits. For this reason we are enclosing a check for the amount due of $106.95. I can appreciate the problem of payments being overdue. So many of these retailers prefer to operate on your money since it is interest free.

The only stumbling block to our endeavour is a lack of time. I am attending law school, working on the waterfront as a longshoreman and chairman of the publicity committee of the most active peace group in Town. I also am chairman of a project, ~~also~~ sponsored by our group, to get 5000 signatures for a 2 page ad in the Oregonian supporting Gov. Hatfield in his bid for Senator and calling for an end to the war in Vietnam. This will cost $5000. We ran an ad last aug. 5 that had 1500 signatures on it. This was in conjunction with our 53 mile peace walk from Portland to Salem, the capitol, to demonstrate our protest to the Vietnam war. This was done on the "International days of protest". I was one of the ~~[illegible]~~ 24 that walked all of the way. It virtually crippled me for 3 days because of blisters. We are also staging a demonstration to greet V.P. Humphrey Sept. 27. He is here to campaign for the "expedient Hawk" Duncan who is Hatfield's opponent for the Senator's seat. This all takes up Time.

Excuse the pen & handwriting but I don't have time to type it.

Most Respectfully
R. A. Washburn
